What Shall We Call It?

~~~~~
 There is an old story about a certain denominational church which was raising money for a new building. In keeping with denominational custom, they sent the ladies of the congregation out to beg for money from the businessmen of the town. On being solicited for a donation one businessman replied, "Tell you what I'll do. If you will put a sign on the front of the building, 'This is a Church of Christ: I'll give you a hundred dollars.'" "Oh no," gasped the lady, "We could not do that, because it is not a church of Christ."

"Very well," replied the businessman, "If you will put up a sign, 'This is not a Church of Christ,' I'll still give the hundred dollars." "But you don't understand," cried the lady, "It is a church of Christ, only it is not a church of Christ, that is, you see, in a way of speaking . . . goodbye!"

There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.
