Stay Focused On The Important Work Of The Church

More than 70 years ago B. C. Goodpasture wrote this:

"For the church to turn aside from its divine work to furnish amusement and recreation is to pervert its mission. It is to degrade its mission. Amusement and recreation should stem from the home rather than the church. The church, like Nehemiah, has a great work to do; and it should not come down on the plains of Ono to amuse and entertain. As the church turns its attention to amusement and recreation, it will be shorn of its power as Samson was when his hair was cut. Only as the church becomes worldly; as it pillows its head on the lap of Delilah; will it want to turn from it wanted course to relatively unimportant matters. Imagine Paul selecting and training a group of brethren to compete in the Isthmian games! Of his work at Corinth he said: "For I determined not to know anything among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified." (Gospel Advocate, May 20, 1948)

It is obvious that the things that B.C. Goodpasture warned about have come to pass. We see churches of Christ fully engaged in all manner of 'fun and games'. The principle work of the church is to spread the gospel (1 Tim. 3:15). Let us never attempt to divert the church from this work - the most important work in all the world.
