Wednesday Night Singing

July 29th is the fifth Wednesday of the month. That evening our service will be primarily one of singing old favorites and learning new songs. Join us as we blend our voices in song and praise.

here who would love the opportunity to answer your questions or point you to someone who can.

And to the saved, do not let your timidity keep you from saying what needs to be said to someone who needs salvation. You say you are an introvert and cannot overcome your timidity? Let me ask you, "Would you be willing to knock on your neighbor's door and awaken them in the middle of the night if you saw flames and smoke billowing out of their house? Of course, you would, demonstrating that timidity can be overcome.

I will end this article in the way I began. Before we realize it, Summer will be over, and when it is, will we be saved? If we overcome our timidity, that answer could be "Yes!"

Remember the words of Paul to Timothy, "For God has not given us a spirit of timidity, but of power and love and discipline" (2 Timothy 1:7).

Before we realize it, a few weeks will pass, and Summer will be coming to an end. That reminds me of an observation made by the prophet Jeremiah. He said, "The harvest is past, The summer is ended, And we are not saved" (Jeremiah 8:20).

One answer to these questions is “timidity,” or being timid. Did you know that some people remain in their sins because they’re too timid to ask for help? And, there are some people still in their sins because we are too timid to initiate a conversation with them about their souls.
